

SORIA, CASTILE & LEON
This is hard territory, in fact, the province's coat of arms bears the motto Soria pure, cabeza de estremadura which means "Pure Soria, capital of the extreme lands".

TRAVEL IN SALDUERO

Tú, viejo Duero, sonríes
entre tus barbas de plata, moliendo con tus romances
las cosechas mal logradas.

Y entre los santos de piedra
y los álamos de magia pasas llevando en tus ondas palabras de amor, palabras.

ROMANCE DEL DUERO - Poemas de Gerardo Diego

Describing Jaca,
Landscape and history.

Jaca is a small city in the north of Spain, in the north of Huesca, in the southern slopes of The Pyrenees, the mountains that are the frontier with France. We are in the middle.

Surrounded by mountains and valleys, the rivers start here. The Aragon River flows from north to south, and when it reaches Jaca, gracefully turns west, like the St. James' Way, like the Sun.

In front of Jaca, to the north, we can see Collarada, the golden mountain, often pink at sunset. To the south, we enjoy the ever-changing views of the iconic Mount Oroel,, dark woods and rock-cliffs that also turn to golden light in the evenings... When there is not a raging storm...

And then, one day, snow covers the woods and the roofs, all is silent and white... for a while...
